Community Advocates Ribfest

Ribfest is a major fundraising event for Community Advocates for Persons with Developmental Disabilities. Since its inception, Ribfest has raised over $881,000 to support programs for people right here in our community. Specifically, the money raised through this event enables the agency to continue working to realize its vision that each person with a developmental disability participate fully in all aspects of community and determine his or her own future.

The 3-day event is hosted at the Arcadia Creek Festival Place in Downtown Kalamazoo. The event features eight national and local rib vendors who serve up some of the best ribs. There are two competitions as part of Ribfest. Individuals interested in participating may select one of the events to enter, but may not participate in both.

The Best Ribs in Kalamazoo is exclusively for restaurants located in Kalamazoo County. It was started nearly 12 years ago as a way to encourage local restaurants and catering companies to "show their ribs" and help the community understand that great ribs are available all year in the Kalamazoo area. This is exclusive to Kalamazoo County.

The second competition is for both professionals and those back-yard grillers. There are two categories including backyard (amateur) and professional. If you sell any one of the components (sauce or the ribs) you are considered a professional. There is a fee for participation and cash prizes for the top two winners.

The Hog Trough Eating Competition

This year, Ribfest will host the first annual Hog Trough Eating Competition. Contestants will compete to see who can eat the most rib dinners, sponsored by Park St. Market with support by Spartan stores. The dinners consist of 4 bones of ribs, 1/2 cup mac and cheese, 1/2 cup potato salad, and 1 roll. Contestants will have 3 minutes to eat as many dinners as possible. There will be 4 heats and the winner will be determined by number of dinners eaten. Unfinished dinners will be weighed and added to the total. Participation is $15 and is limited.

Event Rules and Regulations

Best Ribs in Kalamazoo County Restaurant/Catering Competition

Date: Thursday, August 4 at 8 p.m.
Fee: Free
Note: Limited to restaurants and catering businesses in Kalamazoo County
Judges: The National Rib Vendors (6 of them) along with two food critics comprise the panel of "judges." The judges, in a blind taste test, rate the ribs based on tenderness, texture, flavors, meat tenderness and the sauce richness. They also review the penetration of the sauce and how it complements the meat. Scoring is conducted on a scale of 1-5 and the overall top winner is determined by the number of points received.
Contestant Process: Contestants are asked to arrive at 7:30 p.m. to begin check in and receive review of rules and regulations. The following are the basic guidelines:
 1 Bring a prepared full rack of ribs - you will need to bring your own chaffing dishes to keep your product to temperature.
 2 The ribs can be served on your own plater as long as there is no reference to your company. Each judge will be served one rib (12 judges)
 4 Judges will rate the ribs on a variety of factors - as indicated above.
 5 Contestants are asked to arrive by 7:30 p.m.
Benefits: Contestants will be promoted on site on signage promoting the event on Thursday. WRKR promotes the event and they will highlight the participants of the event on the radio. On Friday they will announce the winners.
 ❖ Winners receive a trophy and are highlighted throughout the festival weekend.
